☼ ASX De-listing

Malabar completed the voluntary de-listing process from the ASX on 20th January 2017. The intention was announced in August 2016 and was approved at the Annual General Meeting in November 2016 with 100% of those voting, voting in favour.

Link Market services will continue to serve as the registry for the Company. Malabar is currently seeking ASIC approval to allow buyers and sellers to trade shares in a low volume market.

Malabar remains fully committed to developing the Spur Hill Underground Coking Coal Project. Malabar will also continue to assess value-enhancing opportunities including potential acquisitions.

☼ Board Restructure

As a public company, Malabar will continue to comply with reporting requirements under the Corporations Law. In continuing to meet these obligations and reducing administration costs, the board of directors has been restructured and reduced from six directors to three. Andy Plummer, Hans Mende, Simon Keyser and Ian Morgan have resigned as directors. Brian Clifford the Managing Director of AMCI Australia has joined the board. He was previously an alternate director for Hans Mende.

A separate technical advisory panel has been formed to provide expert technical and strategic advice in regard to the development of the Spur Hill Project and the assessment of opportunities. This panel comprises key shareholders and management.
